BOY IS DROWNED NEAR HAMAULU

A Filipino boy named Rofino, aged about 18, emed by Hanamaulu section of the plantation, was drowned in Hanamaulu stream about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

He was wading in the edge of the stream, fishing. Filipinos and a Hawaiian on the other side saw him down but thought he was putting down a net and paid no further attention for a time. After awhile, however, they noticed that the boy had disappeared and gave the alarm.

A man named Geo. Richards answered the call, and found at the spot the water was deep. He jumped in and waded several times, finally finding the body. Life was then extinct.

The case was so plain one of accidental drowning. Sheriff Rice did not consider a coroner's inquiry was necessary.

HALLOWE'EN CH ENJOYED BUS

The On Club's October-entertainment took the form of a Halloween party, held at the local hall. Announcement had been sent stating that "ghosts and pillow cases" were in order. Accordingly all appeared in ghost garb, several waltzes being interspersed here and there.

The stage had been effectively decorated in most vivid Halloween style under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Grote. Miss K. Ommanney, while in dim lit hall Miss K. Wood led over the witches' cauldron which lurid green flames emitted, well contrasted the bright red glow apparent from the logs beneath.

All gathering around the number of "ghost stories" told by various members of guests, after which new waltzes were initiated into the ring of Oudon. Various games and tests of skill were also part of the evening.

A peanut race between the siding judges of the two benches caused much merriment. It is not quite, however, to whom the prize went.

Dancing and refreshments followed off a very enjoyable evening, the novelty and informality of the affair lending greatly to its success.

WATER MAN HAS DANGEROUS FALL

D. E. Horner, of the water survey, had a bad fall upon the rocks in a stream near Kekaha last Thursday, narrowly escaping serious injuries.

He and a Japanese were taking measurements of the water in the stream, when the wire from which they were suspended parted. The drop was about 20 feet. The Japanese being light, escaped without particular injuries but Mr. Horner was badly shaken up and bruised.

A doctor was summoned as soon as possible and the injured man giving every possible attention. He is now convalescent.

The little steamer Mikahala came over from Honolulu Thursday night, in place of the W. G. Hall. She had waited behind until 10 o'clock in order to return the Kauai mail. HORNER AND RICE WIN CUP

The first of the Wall & Dougherty Cup Tournament came to a close last Sunday when the final round between E. D. Murdock and J. M. P. Thompson and Albert Horner and Harrison Rice was played in Lihue.

The event proved somewhat disappointing inasmuch as a hard fought battle had been expected, instead of which a rather one-sided match was witnessed. Out of the 20 games played one team captured 10, the rules calling for the best three out of five for the final contest.

Murdock and Thompson both played entirely out of their usual form, only succeeding in taking one game in the first set and one in the second set. Horner and Rice played a moderate game making everything possible count, which under the circumstances allowed their score to mount steadily.

Time for the match was approximately 50 minutes.

Score, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0 in favor of Horner and Rice, who now hold the cup until the next tournament is played off, which is scheduled for April of next year.

Measles Rampant

The sanitary inspector has reported altogether 150 cases of measles in the Hanamaulu and Lihue plantation camps. The ailments seems to be under partial control.

It is definitely known that the case at Makaweli of three weeks ago came from Honolulu.

A meeting of the Kauai Board of Supervisors will be held at the regular hour tomorrow. Mr. Menefoglio will in all probability be present, bringing the membership on deck up to four.

F. C. Morrow has been heard from, reporting having a pleasant vacation among old friends in Washington State. He expects to return on the next Matsonia with a number of new schemes to further improve the local phone service.

FIVE MEN INJURED IN A ROCK SLIDE

Four Japanese and a Porto Rican were caught in a slide of rock and earth from the hill side near Lihue mill Thursday afternoon, and had to be treated at the hospital. Only one of the men (a Japanese) was really badly injured, and he is still under treatment.

The men were engaged in blasting material to be used in filling the low district back of the mill, to which it is purposed to remove the stables. They had been strictly cautioned by Manager Weber to watch out for overhanging rock or earth when blasting, but disregarded that warning, with the result that a large part of the hill crest at that point came down upon them.

All of the workmen were injured, but, with one exception, were more frightened than hurt. They were an awful scared bunch and all but collapsed when taken out and hurried away to the hospital.

It is safe to say that the warning of Manager Weber in regard to greater care in blasting will be religiously heeded in the future.

FILIPINOS BEST THE GERMAN TEAM

A very interesting baseball game was played at Lihue Park last Sunday between a picked all-Kauai Filipino team, and the German nine. Some good batting was witnessed with but few errors. If the remaining games keep up to this standard, the series will be "Junior" in name only.

Kuhlman, pitching for the Germans, maintained his reputation, while the Filipino twirler made quite a hit. The score was tied in the eighth inning, a home run in the ninth giving the "Brown Brothers" the game, with a score of 9 to 8.

A number of machines along the side lines and a packed stand, almost every Sunday, is evidence of the gathering interest in this baseball series.

Dimmed Auto Lights

Auto lights with "eye-lashes" on them are beginning to appear on the Kauai roads, although the new ordinance does not go into effect for more than a month yet. Many autoists are planning the use of frosted globes, which, it is understood, will meet the requirements of the law.

FOOLISH MARIA DRINKS BAY RUM

Maria Batista, a Portuguese woman, aged 32, living at Koloa, drank the contents of a large bottle of bay rum and died last Tuesday, after several hours of vomiting and convulsions.

The coroner's jury ascertained no cause for the deed, although it was stated the inquiry that the woman was a hard drinker, hitting up anything from beer to Jersey lightning. She was in the habit of drinking bay rum but always took it heavily diluted with water. In the final grand slam, however, she gurgled the raw stuff—a large bottle at one clip.

Then her troubles began in earnest and ended in her death about twelve hours later.

The woman was the mother of three children. She was the housekeeper of a man named Torre, but was not married to him.

HISTORIANS HOLD REGULAR SESSION

The Kauai Historical Society had a rather small attendance Thursday evening for its regular meeting, but enthusiastic appreciation of the features of the program more than made up for lack of numbers present. President W. H. Rice was in the chair and the secretary, Miss Elsie Wilcox, was also at her post of duty.

The topic of the evening—"Kauai and the Early Navigators"—was interestingly presented by J. M. Lydgate, and a paper by Judge Sanford B. Dole on the early days of Koloa proved also to be an entertaining and instructive feature.

The session concluded with reminiscences by the President and others.

Miss Martin and Mr. E. W. Garden were elected to membership.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting in January, in place of December.
